9 Here are three squares.

The area of square B is 25% less than the area of square A.
The area of square C is 25% less than the area of square B.

Find the fraction $\frac{\text{area of square } \mathbf{C}}{\text{area of square } \mathbf{A}}$

.....

(Total for Question 9 is 3 marks)