

16 A , B and C are three points on a map.

1 cm represents 100 metres.

Point T is 250 metres from point A .
Point T is equidistant from point B and point C .

On the map, show one of the possible positions for point T .