

18 The pie charts show information about the favourite animal of each student at school A and of each student at school B.

There are 480 students at school A.

There are 760 students at school B.

Henry says,

“The same number of students at each school have tigers as their favourite animal.”

Is Henry correct?

You must show how you get your answer.