13		Proof	M1	for a fully complete method as far as finding two correct decimals that, when subtracted, give a terminating decimal (or integer) and showing intention to subtract, e.g. $9x = 3.9$
			A1	correct working to conclusion