21 The length of a rectangle is the same as the length of each side of a square.

The length of the rectangle is 4 cm more than 3 times the width of the rectangle.

The area of the square is 66 cm^2 more than the area of the rectangle.

Find the length and the width of the rectangle.
You must show all your working.

.....

(Total for Question 21 is 6 marks)