13 For any three consecutive whole numbers, prove algebraically that the largest number and the smallest number are factors of the number that is one less than the square of the middle number.

(Total for Question 13 is 3 marks)