

|    |     |       |    |                                                                                       |                                                                                            |
|----|-----|-------|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 16 | (a) | Shown | C1 | for correct algebraic rearrangement                                                   |                                                                                            |
|    | (b) | 2.856 | M1 | for substitution of 3 into formula,eg $\sqrt[3]{9 + 5 \times 3}$ (= 2.8844991...) | $x_1 = 2.8844991\dots$$x_2 = 2.8611747\dots$$x_3 = 2.85641824\dots$                |
|    |     |       | M1 | for a substitution of $x_1$ to give $x_2$ (= 2.8611747...)                            | Accept an accuracy of 2dp ormore rounded or truncated forvalues of $x_1$ and $x_2$ |
|    |     |       | A1 | for answer in the range 2.856 to 2.86                                                 |                                                                                            |